Terre de la Custodia’s Plentis Montefalco DOC Bianco 2020

scritto da Redazione Wine Meridian | 30 Settembre 2023

The depth and character of the terroir are tenderly preserved in this white wine of exceptional richness and balance. Diligent craftsmanship in the cellar has magnified the 2020 harvest by artfully blending grapes like Trebbiano Spoletino and Chardonnay, resulting in the superb white wine known as “Plentis.” The name “Plentis” is indeed fitting for a white wine that exudes fullness, bearing the hallmark harmony of exceptional wines.

In the glass, it unveils a color that captivates the eye, with a spectrum of golden hues meticulously intertwined, creating a brilliantly complete visual display.

This fullness extends to the olfactory experience, where the fragrance of the Mediterranean landscape melds with ripe tropical fruits, accompanied by assertive and candid citrus notes.

On the palate, it offers a rounded and opulent taste, echoing the aromas encountered on the nose. The wine maintains a well-balanced profile, both in terms of harmony and length. It astonishes with its unique identity and leaves an indelible impression in the taster’s memory, particularly with its mineral undertones.

An excellent choice at the dining table, especially when paired with dishes that emphasize the freshness of thoughtfully sourced raw ingredients, thereby enhancing its remarkable equilibrium. Whether it’s a plate of sea urchin pasta or medium-aged cheeses, the nobility of this white Montefalco wine shines through with all its finesse. Bravo!

Company Profile

Terre de la Custodia, in the heart of Umbria and of the appellation of origin «Montefalco», to-tally surrounded by greenery of Sagrantino land, consists of about 175 ha of vineyards of na-tive vines like Sagrantino and Grechetto, but also more traditional varieties like Sangiovese and Merlot. Franciscan friars planted the first Sagrantino and Grechetto grapes, passing on through the years the secrets of the art of winemaking.
