

Wine Future's 2023 program announced

scritto da Redazione Wine Meridian | 27 Settembre 2023

Wine Future is delighted to announce the full program for its fourth edition, “Breaking Barriers”, which will take place between 7th and 9th November this year at the Convento de São Francisco in Coimbra. The world's biggest wine conference brings together a stellar list of wine experts. This edition is co-organized by ViniPortugal, through the Wines of Portugal brand, and Chrand Events.

The themes of this edition of Wine Future focus on raising awareness among the younger generation about moderate alcohol consumption, new strategies for increasing sales in uncertain times, the evolution of wine tourism, Portugal's iconic wines, new technologies as a driving force for expansion, and many other topics.

Frederico Falcão, President of ViniPortugal, said, “This will be a unique opportunity for us to get in touch with wine industry professionals and share knowledge in order to help the sector promote its business better, more effectively and more efficiently in Portugal, but above all worldwide."

Pancho Campo, founder of Wine Future Summits, says: "All the topics we are discussing are very important and should be debated within the wine industry. We want to organize a complete event where participants feel that learning and sharing experiences can bring something beneficial to their business."
