

Italian wines in the world: Mater Matuta Lazio Rosso IGT 2015 of Casale del Giglio

scritto da Redazione Wine Meridian | 7 Luglio 2018

Mater Matuta Lazio Rosso IGT

Color: dark ruby

Year of production: 2015

Price: 35.70

Annual production: 28,000 bottles

Denomination: IGT

Aging: in new barrels for 22/24 months. Following is a further refinement of 10/12 months in bottle.

Grapes: Syrah (85%) and Petit Verdot (15%)

We are in front of the symbolic wine of the company, not only because it is a bottle with extraordinary characteristics, but as a synthesis of the philosophy of this winery, which has made research and experimentation in a qualitative key its flag. Mater Matuta, in fact, is a skilful intersection of the two vines that have given the most convincing answers in this area of