Italian wines in the world: Siddùra’s Nudo

scritto da Redazione Wine Meridian | 15 Luglio 2020

Siddùra is a winery where you can breathe a strong passion for the environment and a great energy. The same people who work these lands of indigenous vines fully convey all the sense of beauty of these territories, with the simplicity and character that has always belonged to the. Sardinian people. Nudo, the wine we tasted, is the result of a selection of Cannonau grapes, expertly worked to give the wine a color of rose petals or more technically onion skin. This wine has got a a label that reveals its freshness but also its character of Cannonau di Sardegna DOC.

In the glass, the elegant rosé notes are combined with a wide range of aromas on the nose ranging from fresh red fruits to flowers reminiscent of freesia and citrus notes of orange blossom. Hints of fresh exotic fruit in the finish, the tasting of this wine transmits its strong link with the Cannonau grape, both for minerality and for flavor, but delicately and harmoniously combines the set of all the sensations we have had, combining a long finish with a great character note of this wine. Nudo is what it looks like, with all the intriguing beauty of an excellent wine that never ceases to surprise. Combined with focaccia bread with Sardinian cherry tomatoes and sardine, or with a summer pasta with vegetables and freshly seared tuna, it manages to harmonize strong flavors with its beautiful ease of drinking.

Company Profile

Siddùra was born from the discovery made by two entrepreneurs who identified and fell in love with an abandoned but enchanting property in the heart of Gallura, collecting the legacy of an ancient wine production that in the fifties of the last century already bottled vermentino to sell on the nearby market . The company has made Sardinia a brand of purity, tradition, quality and innovation. Thirty hectares of vineyards that give life to a collection of nine wines: the vermentino of Gallura Spèra, Maìa and Bèru, the rosé cannonau Nudo, the cannonau, DOC and Riserva, Èrema and Fòla, the Cagnulari Bàcco, the international Tìros and the passito Nuali. The wines received over 400 medals.
